*CALL TO WORSHIP

Today of all days, if I say only, "Good Morning", and you say, "Good Morning", it is not enough. It is not enough. This good morning is God's best morning, sunlight scattering darkness, joy melting heartbreak, life shattering death, for Jesus Christ, God's shining light, who was tortured, broken and buried, is risen and alive in God, alive among us now, today, evermore, and always.

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S CALL

PRAYER:

O most gracious God, we praise you that you have not abandoned us to the living death of despair, but have lifted us up from all that threatens to take away our joy and peace. We ask that we might live in newness of life, that we might know the power of resurrection, and that we might become the evidence of your presence in Cincinnati and in the world. We thank you for your love that never lets us go and for the assurance that nothing, absolutely nothing, can ever separate us from your love in Christ Jesus. Amen.
