2014 Northport ArtWalk Important Information

Sales

There are no commission fees for sales made during the Northport ArtWalk. All sales belong solely to the artist. Artists are responsible for accepting payments and making change. The hosting merchant will not be supplying any packaging material for purchased artwork.

Installation

Art must be installed no later than noon of the day of the Northport ArtWalk. The artist is responsible for contacting their hosting merchant prior to the event to determine how much space they will be allowed to use and what methods of installation will be available to them (eg. hooks in walls, shelves, stands). All installation materials must be supplied by the artist and must be completed by the artist and/or a representative of the artist, not by the hosting merchant. At the end of the event, all artwork must be removed and the space must be left in the condition it was found. An artist and merchant may agree to extend an exhibition beyond the day of the Northport ArtWalk event, however, the extended exhibit will no longer be considered part of the official Northport ArtWalk, and the merchant and artist are solely responsible for the work.

Jury

Jurying for the Northport ArtWalk will be the responsibility of the Northport ArtWalk committee.
