ADVERTISING PROSPECTUS

ABOUT IAQA DIGEST

IAQA Digest is the leading weekly publication in America on the indoor environment. Every week since 2005, it has brought the latest IAQ news via e-mail to the members of the Indoor Air Quality Association – more than 2,600 recipients.

Our staff scours the news media each week for stories that will be of paramount importance to IAQA members. Each issue includes 30 or more articles, news release and bulletins, organized into sections including Top Stories, Asthma & Allergies, Going Green, Mold, IAQ Systems Maintenance, Associations, Gases and Particles, Viruses and Bacteria, Smoking Bans, and Company Releases. Year after year, IAQA Digest has been identified as among the most popular benefits in surveys of IAQA members.

The Digest is released using Constant Contact, featuring a user-friendly navigation system. Each ad will have a hyperlink that will bring readers directly to your website!
