in from the wilderness

Narrative, Story, and Spiritual Autobiography

tools and practices for renewal and refreshment

A Day Retreat for the Transgender Community

Friday, December 6, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Auburndale United Parish

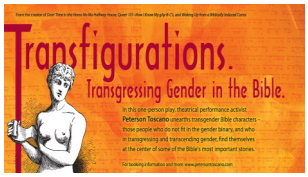
64 Hancock St. Auburndale, MA 02466 Phone: 617-964-8516

Join us for this one day opportunity to explore the power of narrative and writing spiritual stories as a source of renewal, refreshment and strength. Led by Rev. David Weekley, a transgender clergy, and renowned performer and activist Peterson Toscano. David is a Doctor of Ministry candidate at Boston University School of Theology. This retreat is one part of his degree project. There is no charge, and lunch will be provided.*

Attendance is limited to 10 participants.

For more information or to attend please contact David Weekley: dew@bu.edu or phone: 971-344-6394.

*Thursday Evening Before The Retreat



"Transfigurations: Transgressing Gender in the Bible" a performance by Peterson Toscano at Boston University School of Theology: Thursday evening, December 5th 7:00 p.m. in the The Oxnam-Hartman Room.

I would like to thank the following sponsoring organizations:

- Office of the Dean: The School of Theology
- The Anna Howard Shaw Center
- The Center for Practical Theology
- The Center for Spiritual Life
- The Office of Community Life
- The Religion & Conflict Transformation Program
- Sacred Worth

BOSTON UNIVERSITY