

ITALIAN FILM FESTIVAL USA

of Phoenix

April 26, 2014

Come spend a day in Italy! Enjoy the local premieres of four recent, critically acclaimed Italian films at the 2014 Italian Film Festival USA of Phoenix. All films shown in Italian with English subtitles at Coor Hall 174 on the campus of Arizona State University in Tempe. In collaboration with Arizona State University, sponsored by Arizona State University's School of International Letters and Cultures and the Italian Cultural Institute.

THE WOMEN WORKERS' WAR

Saturday, April 26 • 9:30 a.m.

(Director, Massimo Ferrari, Documentary, 2013, 54 min.)

The documentary recounts the story of two women: one who leads the longest factory sit-in by women in Italy and the other who operates a cookie factory that also encourages cultural and personal growth among the workers.

OUT OF THE BLUE • BUONGIORNO PAPÀ

Saturday, April 26 • 11:15 a.m.

(Director, Edoardo Leo, Comedy, 2012, 102 min.)

A ladies' man with a skyrocketing career returns home to find Layla, a seventeen-year-old who claims to be his daughter. She is not alone...there's also her grandfather. And they have come to stay!

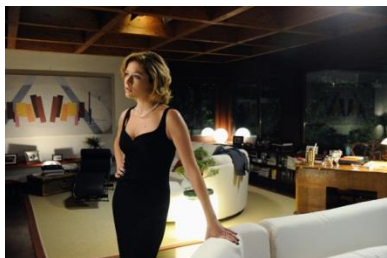

THE RED AND THE BLUE • IL ROSSO E IL BLU

Saturday, April 26 • 2:00 p.m.

(Director, Giuseppe Piccioni, Comedy, 2012, 98 min.)

Set against the background of a Roman school are the stories of an art history professor who has lost his passion for the job, a young substitute who is trying to save a rebel student, and a stern and irreproachable head mistress who is forced to deal with a student who has been forgotten by his mother.

THE JEWEL • IL GIOIELLINO

Saturday, April 26 • 4 p.m.

(Director, Andrea Molaioli, Drama, 2010, 110 min.)

The founder of an international conglomerate places his closest relatives and trusted managers in key positions, but they are unfit to face the challenges of today's market and the company goes further and further into debt. The abyss becomes too large and will swallow everyone.

FREE admission

For further information, visit www.italianfilmfests.org

