

Mike Wagner is a skilled communicator, facilitator, and business consultant who believes you must “keep creating” to be successful. Mike formed White Rabbit Group eleven years ago to inspire and assist organizational leaders in creating remarkable customer experiences that set them apart from their competition.

Mike develops engaging presentations, trainings and facilitations for clients from his vast work experiences with small and medium size enterprises, Fortune 500 companies, and leading non-profit organizations. He brings ideas to life through compelling stories to help clients see their path to success.

Mike speaks and trains across the nation on leadership, creativity, and personal development, while also working on-site with organizational leaders to facilitate the creation of remarkable customer experiences.

Also, Mike pastored for 17 years focusing on church starts and innovative church based ministry to young professionals.

During the last two years Mike has been increasingly asked to work with lay leaders and professional staffs of established churches seeking to revitalize their ministries.

His education includes a B.A. from the University of Nebraska in History and Classical Greek (1977) and a Th.M. (Master of Theology) from Dallas Theological Seminary (1981).
