

Charles Mann, former Redskin and LFLO Committee member, inspired participants with a message about faithfulness.

Pat and Mara Work, parents of Jill's House guest J.P., shared how balancing a marriage, commitment to the military and raising a child with special needs is accomplished through their son's regular visits to Jill's House.

Golfers came together to support families Jill's House serves while enjoying a great game of golf at TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm.

Susan Wyant with I Do Photography for photographing the event and all the volunteers who served with us that day.

To all who sponsored and participated in this event, we hope you are blessed knowing you are breathing new life into families raising children with special needs. And for that, we thank you!

2014 Links for Little Ones sold out!

On Monday, October 13 more than 130 golfers came out for a fun day of golf at the 14th Annual Links for Little Ones (LFLO) Golf Tournament at the prestigious TPC Potomac at Avenel Farm golf course.

Chaired by Joe Livingood of Billy Casper Golf, the LFLO Committee worked hard to help raise more than $83,000 to support the families Jill's House serves. We are so grateful to committee members Fred Baerenz, Matt Bundy, Ed Burke, Woody Fitzhugh, Doug Henderson, Charles Mann and David Schwengel.

Following a day of golf, the event concluded with a banquet and raffle.

Pat Work received a standing ovation at the conclusion of his moving testimony about serving our country and raising his son with special needs. Watch his story.

The event would not have been possible without the players' participation, the many volunteers who gave their time to ensure the event ran smoothly, and our sponsors. Thank you to Ace sponsors AOG Wealth Management, ETS and Venture Insurance Programs.

Thanks also to LFLO's Eagle sponsors Cardinal Bank; Covenant Wealth Advisors; Dominion Federal Corporation; Federal Capital Partners; McFadden Group of Washington Fine Properties; Sanchez & Zures, LLC; SecTek Security; Sovereign Insurance; Sugarloaf Embroidery and Ultimate Software. We also appreciate Randy and
