Your Small Business Resource
Every day, the U.S. Small Business Administration and its nationwide network of partners help millions of potential and current small business owners start, grow and succeed.

Resources and programs targeting small businesses provide an advantage necessary to help small businesses effectively compete in the marketplace and strengthen the overall U.S. economy.

SBA offers help in the following areas:

- Starting a Business
- Financing a Business
- Growing a Business
- Opportunities in Contracting
- Recovering From Disaster
- A Voice for Small Business in Government

Visit SBA online at www.sba.gov for 24/7 access to small business news, information and training for entrepreneurs.

All SBA programs are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact Robin Daniels, 212-264-4322 or robin.daniels@sba.gov

Selling to the Government & 8(a), HUBZone and WOSB Certification

You could be leaving Thousands or even Millions of $$$ on the Federal Government Procurement Table. The Federal Government purchases more than $500 Billion in goods and services on an annual basis.

The above programs are all geared toward assisting socially and economically disadvantaged businesses, as well as small businesses located in historically underutilized business zones and women owned small businesses.

Attend one of our FREE certification training sessions to learn more.
