

Denise Daly Konrad, MS

Denise is excited to be the Foundation's Director of Strategic Initiatives and Policy. She has held leadership positions in several Richmond area health-related non-profits, including REACH, an organization that helped improve healthcare services for low-income, uninsured residents of greater Richmond (REACH was a Project Connect grantee in the 2000s). Denise was most recently a Program Officer and Director of the Nurse Leadership of Virginia at the Richmond Memorial Health Foundation. She earned a Master of Science in Health Evaluation Sciences from the University of Virginia and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from The College of William and Mary. She serves on the Board of Directors of Access Now and Homeward and is a graduate of Leadership Metro Richmond. Denise and her husband, Otto; two stepsons, Gus and Mac; and, 3-year old son, Jebediah, live in the City of Richmond. She loves hanging out with her family and friends, reading, gardening, cooking, listening to music and spending time in the mountains of Grayson County in Southwest Virginia.

Cat Hulburt

Cat joins VHCF as a Senior Program Officer has over a decade of experience working with nonprofits and community organizations in the Richmond area. She has worked extensively with health safety net providers at both the administrative and programmatic level. As a Development Consultant, she has helped a number of nonprofits expand their support network, grow their programs, and strengthen their evaluation processes. In her spare time, Cat is involved in a number of musical projects and enjoys an extremely laid-back approach to the garden she is attempting to cultivate.

Rachel L. Rees

Rachel became VHCF's Deputy Director of Programs & Operations in 2014. Rachel has been involved in health care for eight years. Prior to joining VHCF in 2012 as a Program Officer, she worked at Virginia Department of Health where she managed the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP). She holds a Master in Public Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University and a Bachelor of Arts in English from Virginia Tech. Rachel and her husband live in Richmond, and have a small vineyard in Albemarle County. She is delighted to continue her work with the safety net family.
