FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MEDC Elects Officers for 2014

MONTGOMERY, IL - At its January meeting, the Montgomery Economic Development Corporation elected its officers for the coming year. Serving on the Board for 2014 are:

- Dr. Neil Schlupp – Dr. Schlupp has served as President since 2010. He is the owner of Montgomery Chiropractic, which has been in the Village for more than 26 years.
- Craig McQuade – Craig was elected to his first term on the Board, and will be serving as Vice-President. He is a lifelong resident of Kendall County who has been with Castle Bank since 2005. In response to this new responsibility, Craig said, "I am excited about the opportunity of taking on a more involved role as Vice-President. The Board has been very welcoming during my short tenure and I have learned a lot about the exciting things happening in Montgomery. I look forward to working with the other members of the Board to maintain Montgomery's business-friendly atmosphere."
- Don Kalish – Don is serving his 3rd term as Treasurer. Don is the controller at Rush-Copley Medical Center in Aurora.
- Scott Vickers – Scott will be serving his first term as Secretary. He is First Vice-President with Old Second National Bank and has managed the Oswego branch since its opening in 1997.
