FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THE MEDC names Gary A. Kecskés as a new Director on the MEDC Board.

MONTGOMERY, IL - At its March meeting, the Montgomery Economic Development Corporation elected to add Gary A. Kecskés, MAr, MLE - ., assistant Vice President of Workforce Solutions and Community Learning at Waubensee Community College., to its Board. Prior to joining Waubensee, Gary served as Dean of Community Outreach for a public college in Connecticut, worked in Tampa overseeing economic development for Hillsborough Community College. He was also the Senior Urban Designer for Sarasota, Florida. Mr. Kecskés hails from Michigan where he was the Executive Director of the University of Michigan's Center for Corporate and Professional Development. Mr. Kecskés holds three degrees in architecture, earned certification in the Management of lifelong Education from Harvard University and has been involved in economic and workforce development for more than 20 years.

Doug Williams, Director of Operations from Earthmover Credit Unit resigned from the MEDC Board in February. Dr. Neil Schlupp noted Mr. Williams clearly noted his support and respect for the organization. Personal commitments and a young family was the reason for the resignation. Doug served on the Board since 2011 and served as secretary in 2013.

- Dr. Neil Schlupp – Dr. Schlupp has served as President since 2010. He is the owner of Montgomery Chiropractic, which has been in the Village for more than 26 years.
- Doug Williams – Doug served on the MEDC Board since 2011 and served as secretary in 2013. Doug is the Director of Operations for Earthmover Credit Union and oversees the branches in Oswego, Montgomery and Yorkville.
- Gary A. Kecskés, MAr,MLE – Gary will be serving his first term on the MEDC Board. He is Assistant Vice-President of Workforce Solutions and Community Learning with Waubensee Community College.
