Cell: 504-782-6863

Who is Invited?

Any man, whether young or middle-aged, considering a vocation to religious life as a minister in the Church – especially anyone considering a Jesuit way of life as a possible vocation.

Why Attend?

Come meet and interact with Jesuits in our mission to learn who we are and what we do! We will be together in prayer, conversation, reflection and service in order to explore God's invitation to follow as a Jesuit priest and/or brother.

Format of the Weekend?

The weekend will be active with presentations by Jesuits, prayer and sacramental opportunities, and a chance to interact with others in discernment.

- We will begin the gathering at 4pm on Friday, February 7th at Savior Pastoral Center.
- The Come and See will conclude at 2pm on Sunday, February 9th at Rockhurst University.

Arriving in Kansas City

If you are flying, plan to fly into the Kansas City International Airport (MCI) arriving before 3pm on Friday the 7th. Rides from the airport to the retreat center will be arranged. For those driving, plan to be at Savior Pastoral Center before 4pm on the 7th. There is plenty of free parking available.

Departing from Kansas City

If you are flying out of KC, schedule your flight for 3:30pm or later. We will conclude @ 2pm.

Cost?

There is no cost for this weekend other than travel. Financial assistance is available.
