

Information Release

Please Re-distribute/Apology for Cross-posting

October 1, 2014

Now accepting nominations, the thirteenth (13) Northern Exposure to Leadership Institute (NELI) will be held in Emerald Lake, British Columbia, from March 29 to April 4, 2015.

Please see: <http://northernexposuretoleadership.ca/> for 'Nomination Criteria', as well as other pertinent information.

The Institute's mission is to assist professional librarians aspiring to leadership roles to develop, strengthen, and evolve their leadership potential so that they may be better equipped to lead Canada's libraries or information service organizations or programs in the 21st century.

Based on the premise of experiential learning, the Institute includes group and individual learning experiences, and the opportunity to learn in conversation with mentors, who have been chosen for their own accomplishments and their leadership skills.

Northern Exposure, at this call, will be targeting forty-two (42) librarians, with the successful participants chosen from the nominees.

Nominees must: (1) have a desire to develop their leadership potential and aggressively aspire to visible leadership roles in library and information service organizations; (2) have received their library degrees, generally, within the past seven years; and, (3) have a minimum of two year's professional library experience and a generally a maximum of seven years.

Individual nominations will be welcomed from a variety of sources, including employers, associations, library and information studies programs, and the corporate information services sector including sector vendors. Nominees will be asked to supply a résumé or curriculum vitae, a one-page synopsis of achievements, a prospective career development program/path and their expectations for the Institute.

Those chosen as participants must secure funding to cover the registration fee and transportation to Calgary, Alberta including any pre- or post-NELI accommodations in Calgary. Meals, Emerald Lake Lodge accommodation as well as program and learning materials will be provided while attending the Institute.

Nominations must be received by January 5, 2015.
