

The Madison Christian Community Welcomes
Richard Bruxvoort-Colligan as Artist in Residence
February 15-16, 2014

Richard Bruxvoort Colligan is a freelance musician and worship leader bent on inviting adventure and imagination into worship. With one foot in the ELCA and one in the UCC, his songs have been published by both denominations. Be welcome at Worldmaking.net and PsalmImmersion.com for more.

The Spirituality of Music: A Workshop with Richard Bruxvoort-Colligan

Saturday, February 15, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm in the Covenant Room

Cost: $15 ($20 for workshop and evening concert)

Music-lovers know there's something special about sound. In more ways than one, it resonates with our life, bringing meaning to everyday things. Music with lyrics help us express ideas and emotions too deep for mere speech.

Welcome to a morning of singing and talk about music. Together we'll sing Psalms and explore how music has carried the Christian tradition for centuries. We'll look at why music's many moods is a vital element in worship, and how the musicians among us are important leaders.

Richard Bruxvoort-Colligan in Concert at the MCC

Saturday, February 15, 7:00 pm

Cost: $10 ($20 for morning workshop and concert)

Guest artist and worship leader, Richard Bruxvoort-Colligan will present a concert for all ages. One thing's for sure: there's bound to be stories, Psalms and jokes. Come for a relaxed evening of acoustic music featuring some of Richard's originals and some songs you'll know.

Tickets: $10 in advance or at the door (children 12 and under free)

$20 for the concert plus the morning workshop if you plan to attend both
