All proceeds support the 20-person United Methodist Cal-Pac South District New York Sandy Relief Mission Team who will be working in and around Massapequa, a community on Long Island, New York, from October 5th through 12th. They will be helping families who cannot afford to repair and rebuild themselves. Hurricane Sandy damaged over 2,000 homes in communities on the southern shore of Long Island last October. The team will also give a short presentation on their upcoming trip.

4-Foot storm surge hit many parts of Long Island southern coast

The 20 team members are from 9 churches in the South District and 2 churches in other Cal-Pac districts. Each person has donated $200 of their money towards their expenses. We need to raise the additional $700 per person for travel expenses. The team ages in range from 18 to 75 years old and are all eager to give a week of their time to such a great cause.
