

Kyle B. Strong
Financial Professional
CA Insurance License # 0H95768

Kyle B Strong has held the position of financial professional at The Prudential Insurance Company of America since March of 2010 servicing clients out of The Chicagoland Agency. His mission is to assist individuals, families, business owners and businesses as entities in solving the financial puzzles of this ever-changing, unsure financial market place with foundational financial solutions.

Kyle acquired significant experience and professional popularity in the strategic retirement planning area with the Chicago Public School teachers and the Retired Teachers Association. Kyle has completed over 650 hours of classroom study, case application preparation and licensing examinations. He currently holds a Series 6 and 63 investment license.

Kyle also holds Life, Health, Fixed and Variable Annuity and Long-term care license for the state of Illinois, Indiana, California and Louisiana. As a financial professional with Prudential, Kyle was recognized as the 2nd leading FPA 1st quarter in 2012 and the Leading FPA 3rd quarter in 2012. Kyle received his Bachelors of Business and Administration with a concentration in Accounting and Finance from American InterContinental University.

He is an active member of NAIFA since 2010 and qualified for Prudential's Masters Counsel 2012-2014. Kyle also participates with various organizations at his church and in his community. Kyle is happily married to his lovely wife, Julie, since 2005 and they have two daughters. He currently resides in Chicago.
