A WOMAN WITH A PAST
A GOD WITH A FUTURE

Wednesdays, 6:00 p.m.
Current Study
FBC Navarre

Women with troubled histories often experience lingering despair, woundedness, & self-recrimination, even after embracing God's transforming power. Kok's personal stories about overcoming her own past demonstrate how God can incorporate abuse, painful relationships, and mistakes into a future that exceeds all expectations! This Bible study will walk women through the process of uncovering the story of a painful past, understanding it, and allowing God to incorporate it into a future full of hope and adventure.

Learn what the Lord's Prayer teaches us about effective prayer and how to put into practice its timeless principles. Kay Arthur will equip you to be used in God's kingdom. Her authority comes from God's Word; her compassion stems from a life touched by deep tragedy as well as great triumph. Getting to know her heart for God will be one of the joys of this study. What you learn will be yours to practice for a lifetime, just as Jesus intended when He taught His

Men

In Matthew 28:19, Jesus told his disciples, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." This commission includes believers today. The task may seem large, but it doesn't have to be an intimidating mandate, rather a way of living that invites people into what God is doing in their lives. However, somewhere along the line, disciple-making moved from being a part of everyday life to the sole responsibility of pastors and evangelists. The result is that we no longer feel equipped to share the life-giving gospel of Jesus with our friends and neighbors. This isn't how things are supposed to be, and in Multiply: Disciples Making Disciples, Francis Chan and Mark Beuving show you how the joy of living your life with Christ in front of others can be restored. You'll discover the confidence and encouragement you need to step out in faith and make disciples out of the people that God has placed in your life.

This study will be an In-Home Small Group Study for Men, beginning in November. If you are interested in hosting and/or participating please contact Shane Abrams, 850-281-6988.

A CALL TO DIE.
A CALL TO LIVE.
FOLLOW ME

Wednesday, 6:00 p.m.
Beginning November 5
FBC Navarre

You may think you are a Christian - but are you sure? Jesus' call to follow him is more than an invitation to pray a prayer. It is a summons to lose your life. And find new life in him. Pastor David Platt continues to challenge cultural Christianity in this much-anticipated follow-up to Radical. This book compels each one of us to examine the validity and vitality of our own personal faith. "Follow Me" is a life and death message for all who claim the name of Christ.
