Reasons to use a TRAVEL Professional

Personalized Travel Services – A Travel Professional understands that no two travelers are alike, just as no two vacations are alike either. A Travel Professional takes the time to get to know what your needs, desires and interests are for travel. They use their expertise to put together a personalized travel experience just for you, every time you travel.

Added Value – A Travel Professional uses their experience and industry relationships to offer amenities, deals, and packages that you won't find elsewhere. Tapping into their own network of travel related services and locations means you will get more value with your travel budget. A Travel Professional can help make your travel dreams a reality.

Your Travel Advisor – A Travel Professional is also an advisor, ready to guide you through the endless options and varied decisions there are to make when planning a vacation. With experience and knowledge, a Travel Professional is your access point for insider tips, deals and itineraries that will match up with what you want to experience while traveling. A Travel Professional can offer insight and advice to help you have the trip of a life time, no matter where you go or how you get there.

Peace of Mind – With a Travel Professional on your side, you can rest assured that all the small details are taken care of. From the planning of transfers, to knowing what documents are needed (a passport or visa?), to understanding the best times to book a hotel or buy a ticket, and so much more. A Travel Professional lets you relax while getting your vacation prepared with expertise. Your peace of mind goes beyond the planning stage as well, continuing throughout your trip. Whatever may happen unexpectedly, your Travel Professional is available while you travel. From flight cancellations to health emergencies, lost items, and more, if something goes wrong, a Travel Professional is there to help you make it right again.

Experience, Education and Expertise – Travel Professionals love what they do! Travel is their passion and they want to share their knowledge and experience to help you have a wonderful vacation full of great memories. Travel Professionals use their own travel experience to help ensure your trip is just as you imagined. Their continued education helps ensure they know current trends and issues within travel and tourism, so you can navigate the world of travel with ease. Many Travel Professionals are also certified as specialists within niche markets of travel and tourism. From destinations, to specific types of resorts, group travel and more, certified training gives a Travel Professional the extra edge to help you achieve your travel dreams.
