

Why We Should be Using a Retinol Cream and What Does it Do?

Retinol creams are made up of retinoids, a retinoid is a tropical form of Vitamin A. Vitamin A is the number one anti-wrinkle ingredient recommended by dermatologists. Its sole purpose is to promote cell turnover. It eliminates the old, bad cells and produces new, plump and healthy cells.

Nothing works more effectively at eliminating the appearance of wrinkles and fine lines than retinol. It's the best anti-aging ingredient. There is no argument to it. Piles of research prove that the vitamin A derivative can really undo wrinkles and even discoloration caused by sun damage. Turning back the clock!

One of the best things about retinol creams is that you know they're working from the moment you put it on. Within just a few seconds of application, you'll notice a small, yet noticeable difference.
