

Chief Executive Officer

Lutheran Social Services of North Dakota strives to strengthen lives and communities through our spirit of service by offering programs across our state from counseling to youth to widespread social services in disaster recovery, affordable housing, and hunger relief. We are currently seeking a Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to lead our organization through innovation and partnerships as we provide healing, help and hope to our North Dakota residents. The CEO will collaborate with the Board of Directors to lead the transformation of our organization to one that is capable of delivering on its long-term vision through strategic planning, leadership continuity, public relations, and continuous fund development. Our ideal candidate will:

- Drive the direction of the organization through the delivery of program services
- Develop and implement short- and long-term strategies
- Deliver results through people, fund development, and internal operations
- Cultivate relationships through providing social ministry to individuals and communities
- Engage and mobilize people, organizations and our partners

Our ideal candidate will also have a master's degree and 10-15 years of professional experience with at least 5 years of progressively responsible management or the equivalent of education and experience; prior non-profit experience; management of a multi-site organization; and significant development and fiscal management experience.

If this describes you, then send your cover letter, resume, and 3 references by September 15, 2014 to:
