Parkland Health Center Board of Directors Welcomes New Board Members

Parkland Health Center is pleased to announce that Scott D. Kirkley, MD and William W. Bunch have recently been appointed to the Parkland Health Center Board of Directors.

Dr. Kirkley grew up in Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and now makes his home in the Parkland area, having joined the Parkland Health Center Medical Staff and Medical Arts Clinic in 2007. He graduated magna cum laude with his Bachelor of Science degree in biology from Southeast Missouri State University. He received his medical degree from University of Missouri-Columbia, and he also completed his postgraduate education and residency in internal medicine at UMC. Dr. Kirkley served as Chief of Staff at Parkland Health Center during 2011 and 2012.

William W. "Bill" Bunch is from the local area and graduated from North County High School and Mineral Area College. He later graduated from University of Missouri with an A.B. Degree in Political Science following a stint in the U.S. Navy during which he held top-secret security clearance, working in a number of positions throughout the world in the Navy Security Group. Mr. Bunch began in an entry-level position with East Missouri Action Agency in late 1978. He worked in a number of positions with increasing responsibility over the next twenty years until he was appointed Executive Director of East Missouri Action Agency in 1999, the position he holds today. Mr. Bunch is active in the community, having served on numerous boards over the years. Many know him for his pen and ink drawings of railroad depots and other historic structures. Mr. Bunch and his wife, Debra, have two grown children.

Parkland Health Center is part of BJC HealthCare which also includes St. Louis Children's Hospital and Barnes-Jewish Hospital, the teaching hospitals for Washington University School of Medicine.
