

Engaging Our Humanity Now

Three Monday evening conversations sparked by the words and work of Rudolf Steiner, hosted by the Vancouver Members Group, the Anthroposophical Society in Canada, at

The Rudolf Steiner Centre
3743 Delbrook Avenue, (Delbrook Plaza)
North Vancouver, B.C.

Each conversation will begin at 8:00 pm and last until no later than 9:15 pm.

November 11th

"The spirit of untruthfulness cannot be halted if it takes hold of the best in us, namely, our innermost conviction."
- Facilitated by Susan Locey and Philip Thatcher

November 25th

"If there is something we cannot understand, it is better not to judge than to judge adversely."
- Facilitated by Elizabeth Carmack and Philip Thatcher

December 9th

"If one has a sense of what resides in this figure as the central Being of all earthly evolution, one will be able to discover the Christ."

An evening of observation and reflection on the Representative of Humanity, Rudolf Steiner's significant sculptural work.
- Facilitated by Bert Chase and Susan Locey

No pre-registration is needed.

We ask that each participant make a $5 donation per evening toward the support of the Rudolf Steiner Centre.
