

Living the Sacred Trust: Boundary and Ethics Training

♦♦♦

United Church of Christ, Minnesota Conference

Minnesota Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

- Look beyond the “do’s and don’ts”
- Explore the organic and dynamic nature of relationships
- Reflect on real-life boundaries, power and authority

Gain a positive framework and tools to help you negotiate and navigate the increasingly permeable boundaries in parish life as well as our society as a whole so that you can acquire and maintain the trust needed to effectively lead in your ministry setting.

This training satisfies the requirements of the Minnesota Conference Committee on Ministry

Reverend M. Lynn Scott, the facilitator, is an ordained United Methodist minister with over 30 years of experience who cares about the fullness and abundance of life. She has served as a local church pastor, a district superintendent and general church staff with the United Methodist Church. She graduated from a UCC seminary and was recently on staff in a UCC congregation. Currently, Lynn serves as Operations Manager of ARC Retreat Community near Cambridge, which holds sacred space for all who desire to tend to the Holy in their everyday life.

Who: Clergy and Lay Leaders

When: Tuesday September 30, 2014

Register: events.minnesotaumc.org

Click on “Living the Sacred Trust”

Tuesday, September 30, 2014 • 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

United Church of Christ, 1000 Long Lake Rd., New Brighton 55112

Registration due September 23, 2014

$75 before September 23; $90 after September 23