Dear Artisan,

CraftAlaska arts and crafts event will be held inside Ship Creek Center at 333 West 4th Avenue. Additionally, our location so near the starting line for the dogsled races makes this a natural venue for our Alaskan-made arts & crafts.

Admission is free, and the event is open to the public. The show will run from February 21 through 23, and the times are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily. Our vendors pay a minimum fee of $80 per day per table, or $288 per table for all four days. There will be an additional 10% off for those who take advantage of our Early Bird sign up which ends November 15th. Our purpose is not to enrich the mall itself, but to provide a setting for Alaskans, Natives, and others to spotlight their merchandise during Anchorage's premier winter event.

Our permanent shops feature Native, Russian, and African arts & crafts. It seems only fitting that we highlight the best our artists have to offer, during the peak of the winter tourist season. Anchorage is a great place to live, work, and play, and we wish to help advertise that!

I look forward to your participation this year.

Sincerely,

Michael Liebner
