

Care Network Ministry Offers "Caring and The Art of Listening" Workshop

The Care Network Ministry (CNM) will offer a workshop on "Caring and The Art of Listening" on Saturday, September 27th, from 9:00am- 4:00pm (a light lunch will be provided). This workshop is part of "Developing the Caring Community", a guide to training lay members for pastoral care within the congregation.

"Caring and The Art of Listening" is open to members and friends and is suggested for anyone interested in volunteering with the Care Network Ministry. Registration by September 19th is required. Email Daniel Wilds at dc.wilds@mac.com to register. The CNM is a group of Society members and friends who work with the minister to provide support to those with physical, spiritual or emotional concerns. The CNM is comprised of trained volunteers and welcomes new members.
