

Parenting Workshop

German-American International School
The International Middle School at GAIS

Can you parent without fear? — an interactive workshop

Wed. Jan. 8, 2014 7:15 pm | Dr. Susan Charles | free admission

Wed. Jan. 8, 2014 6:30 pm | School Information Evening | free admission

- What are the essential skills we want our children to develop so they thrive in high school, college and beyond?
- What do the adults in their lives need to know, and be able to do, so the children learn those skills?

The event will start at 6:30pm with a presentation about the German-American International School and how the school is equipped, through the International Baccalaureate (IB), to help our students meet the demands of a rapidly changing world.

Following this, Dr. Susan Charles will conduct an enlightening session about important attitudes, skills and dispositions related to parenting without fear.

Please join us for this special event and RSVP on www.gais.org/contact-reservation.
