

PACIFIC NORTHWEST REGIONAL HEARING

Calling all voters from Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington

Monday, April 28, 2014

4:00pm - 8:00pm

University of Washington School of Law
William H. Gates Hall, Room 138
4293 Memorial Way
Seattle, WA 98195

Free and open to the public

Panels: There will be formal panels of witnesses representing voting rights organizations, community leaders, election officials, and other stakeholders.

Open Sessions: There will be two opportunities between formal panels when voters can speak about their experiences.

Register to attend or submit testimony:
SeattleHearing.lawyerscommittee.org

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU

Come testify on problems, successes and opportunities for reform in all aspects of voting in your state.

- » Voting changes in your community
- » Preparedness for natural disasters
- » Voting discrimination
- » Election administration
- » Issues for individuals with disabilities, language minority voters, communities of color
- » Redistricting
- » Voter registration

All who are interested may attend and/or speak. We expect to hear from voters, community leaders, advocates, elections officials and more. Register online at SeattleHearing.lawyerscommittee.org. For more information, please contact Alan Martinson at amartinson@lawyerscommittee.org.

STATE OF THE VOTE IN ID, MT, OR, WA

The National Commission on Voting Rights is hosting hearings across the country to learn more about the current landscape of elections. Over the past few years, numerous states have enacted restrictive voting laws, while many others continue to grapple with recurring election administration and electoral reform challenges. The Commission will document what keeps voters from the ballot box and election reform efforts that expand access.