

.Net Developer (Job #122288)

Employment Type: Contract to Hire
Location: Hollywood, CA
Contact: Shawn Jen
Shawn.Jen@ITCorp.com
714.434.8821

Solid opportunity for a Software Developer that can utilize their diverse range of skills within a .Net environment to integrate state of the art electronic signature technology and integrate applications onto mobile platforms across the enterprise.

Large scale, successful and financially robust, healthcare organization looking for a software developer for their IT team. The ideal candidate will be a .net developer strong in C# and ASP.Net with experience in developing electronic signatures, verisign, docusign, esignature technology. Mobile and iOS platform development knowledge is a big plus!

Skills:

- Degree in Computer Science
- 5+ years of SW Development in the full SDLC, working with .Net development to include working with C#, ASP.NET and SQL Server
- Strong user interface development skills for mobile solutions is a huge plus
- Windows Store app development experience will also be suitable
- Experience troubleshooting interactivity between mobile devices (UI) and backend databases
- Experience in object-oriented JavaScript libraries
- Solid understanding and use of software and analytics to manipulate, analyze, and interpret data
- Experience or knowledge of HTML, CSS, Ajax, JSON, REST, XML, jQuery
- Hands on experience with ASP.Net, specifically C#, n-tier development, XML based web services
- Proven competence in object oriented design and development using the .Net 2.0 or higher frameworks
- Modern Web Frameworks, MVC

Large projects in which .net applications will interface with mobile device and web applications to interface personnel directory and contact information management using Sencha Touch.