Day Trip to Wallace Country Life Center and Historic Greenfield

Tuesday, September 16, 2014

Depart Guthrie Center 9:00 a.m.

Depart Panora 9:15 a.m.

Return approximately 6:30 p.m.

- We'll arrive at the Henry A. Wallace Country Life Center near Orient, Iowa, where we'll have a tour of the many gardens and hear a brief history of the life and times of Henry A. Wallace, the first editor of Wallaces' Farmer magazine. There may even be time to browse through the gift shop featuring a diverse selection of items from artisans throughout southern Iowa.
- Lunch at the Gathering Table Restaurant on the grounds will be a special treat. Chef Katie Routh is famous for building menus around the harvest from the farm and gardens and local farmers.
- After lunch, we'll make the short trip to Greenfield's wonderful old town square where we'll visit the Warren Cultural Center. This old opera house features the performance area, the gallery and Ed & Eva's gift shop.
- We'll have some free time on the town square and see the Hotel Greenfield renovated from the early days of the 20th century.
- We'll end our day at the Iowa Aviation Museum, home of the Iowa Aviation Hall of Fame. We'll see some beautiful, rare vintage planes from the first days of aviation to Vietnam War-era aircraft.
- Our last stop is the Freedom Rock just outside Greenfield.
