

Learn to Make Yarn

at The Wayland Farm Fiber Day/Winter market

Saturday, 1.25, 1PM—4PM

Learn to Spin: an Introduction

A whirlwind tour through the basics of making any kind of yarn on spindles. Try them or give them another try.

For portability, cost and versatility, they can't be beat as a spinning tool. This will be a rich, in - depth workshop in a relaxed, playful environment, and you'll leave with lots of inspiration to continue practicing and learning on your own.

For new and experienced spinners and curious yarn users - those who crochet, knit or weave and want to have some fun.

- Spindle and fiber provided for in class use
- $35./person, $28./person for those who've taken the workshop before
- Limit 15
- 3 hour class, 1PM—4PM. Open to all

Taught by Linda Scharf/Stoneleafmoon

@ the next Wayland Farm Stand's Fiber Day

Saturday, January 25, 2014

Shop @ the market, then come learn to spin.

Register online at stoneleafmoon.com or arrive 20 minutes prior to class to register (if spaces are available).

More info: Linda@stoneleafmoon.com

Linda Scharf is an artist and has been active in the contemporary handspinning movement for over 10 years, teaching spinning and related arts. See more at her site: Stoneleafmoon.com