

Excellence in the Field of Aging Awards

The North Carolina Association on Aging is pleased to announce that it is now accepting nominations for four Excellence in the Field of Aging Awards. These awards will be presented at the NCAOA Awards Luncheon on Thursday, April 24th from 12:15 pm to 1:30 pm.

1. Service Excellence Award

This award honors an employee for the quality of direct service they provide to older adults in their community. Candidates must be front line service delivery workers.

2. Guiding Star Award

This award honors a supervisor or manager for quality supervisory skills in the management of programs and staff they provide that benefit older adults. This award recognizes their ability to supervise and motivate staff as they provide quality work in their community.

3. Rising Star

This award honors a rising star employee with three or fewer years of work experience in the aging network. This award recognizes their ability to take on leadership roles and an interest in the future of their organization and the field of aging.

4. Leadership Excellence Award

This award honors a Chief Executive/Administrative Officer for the quality of leadership and organizational management they provide to their organization and to the aging network. Candidates must have significant year (candidate is preferred have 5 plus years of work experience) as a Chief Executive or Administrative Officer with their organization.

5. Reaching for the Stars – Innovative Program Award

This award honors an agency that has an innovative and creative program that is working to enrich the lives of older adults. We are looking for programs that are creative but effective in enhancing the lives of older adults.

Who is eligible?

Eligible recipients of the awards are staff members of organizations or individuals holding current membership in NCAOA.

How are winners selected?

The NCAOA Chairperson appoints a three-person impartial review panel made up of NCAOA members within the aging network. Anyone nominated for an award will not be appointed to the review panel. The panel will make recommendations for award recipients to the NCAOA Board of Directors for final action. Winners will be announced on Thursday, April 23rd at the NCAOA Awards Luncheon at the 2014 NCAOA Annual Training Conference.

How are nominations made?

Any individual member or agency member organization may submit nominations. Nomination forms are included and may be duplicated as needed.
