

Get Your Medicare Part D Questions Answered

You could be paying more than you have to by not checking to see if the Medicare Part D prescription drug plan you are enrolled in, is still the best plan for you

Medicare Part D Annual Enrollment Period is October 15, - December 7, 2014.
This is the time to check your drug plan and make sure it is the best plan for you.
Medicare Part D Plans are sold by private insurance companies. They are allowed to change their plans each year, the premiums could go up, your co-payments could increase and your medications can be switched between tiers or dropped from their formularies.

AACOG/ALAMO AAA provides unbiased information and counseling to help you understand your Part D plan to insure it is the best plan for you. We are not selling plans nor are we funded by any of the private insurance companies.
