

Make Your Dreams Larger Than Your Memories

Our lives and careers are made up of moments; some that we cherish and others that we would like to forget. While we can learn much from our past, the real challenge is to focus on where the real work of business is made, which is the future. In this seminar, attendees will spend time thinking and planning for the future.

Outcomes:

1. Learn how to develop a personal mission statement.
2. Understand the importance of setting goals.
3. Tell your dreams to the world.
