complexes! It is a very professional and rewarding business! Plus, the relationships you build in our line of work are like none other. We are like-minded and service oriented. I don't know of another industry that has as big of a heart, when it comes to giving back, as we do. I can't believe that I have been in the business for eighteen plus years!

What is your favorite thing about J Turner: I cannot pick just one thing. I love our program and how it helps our industry. I love our unique and quirky team and I have the BEST boss in the world.
