Molly's Angels exemplifies what a grassroots organization can do to make a difference in the lives of those in need.

Our Mission Statement

Provide support services and assistance to promote and improve the quality of life for individuals 60 years of age and older and persons with disabilities, residing in Napa County.

Who We Are

Molly's Angels is an alliance of dedicated Napa Valley volunteers who mainly provide transportation to and from medical appointments, the pharmacy, etc. These appointments are set up on a first come first serve basis, so please call well in advance in order to get on our appointment calendar.

Make A Difference

"If everyone in this town were to send one dollar a month (twelve dollars a year) or more we could help so many families in need."

Molly Banz, Founder of Molly's Angels

"There is no other organization like Molly's Angels. I encourage you to send your donation today."

Joe Peatman,
President of the Gasser Foundation

How Can You Help?

We encourage you to share in our mission. Molly's Angels is seeking companies, individuals and the community to support our senior transportation program.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer driver please call our office 707-224-8971.

Please make your tax-deductible donation today to Molly's Angels, 433 Soscol Avenue, A - 110B, Napa, CA 94559.
