Evanston ACYOA Juniors Retreat
October 26-27, 2013

CODE OF CRISTIAN LIVING

1. As members of the ACYOA, we are part of a Christian youth organization and expect Christian standards of behavior at all times. Therefore, all participants and chaperones shall be treated with respect and dignity at all times.

2. We are a community – we all need to clean-up after ourselves, share the facilities, and treat the facilities with respect. The destruction, misuse, or abuse of property will not be tolerated. Those found responsible for such behavior will be held financially liable.

3. Be on time and follow the schedule! You are expected to participate in all activities. All are expected to follow curfew and lights out. Once lights are out, no one is permitted to leave the building without a chaperone.

4. No boys are to enter the girls' sleeping area, and no girls are to enter the boys' sleeping area for any reason. No excuses!

5. Proper dress and language are expected at all times.

6. Alcohol, tobacco, drugs, weapons of any kind, firecrackers, or audio/video recordings not conducive to a Christian environment are not permitted during the retreat.

7. Cell phones should be turned off during the retreat, especially during all sessions and through the night. They may be used only for emergency or to call home, as needed.

8. Participate in discussions, share your ideas, and remember to listen to others. Everyone deserves a chance to speak, and everyone deserves to be heard.

Any serious violation of these rules by participants will be evaluated on an individual basis and dealt with quickly and firmly and may result in expulsion of the retreat. The participant's family will be responsible for his/her removal from the retreat.

Please note: Depending on the nature of the violation, it may be required to contact the local authorities.

I have read and understand the Code of Christian Living, and agree to abide by the above information.
