

BLUE SKY BRIDGE

Child & Family Advocacy Center

NOMINATIONS WANTED

The annual Champions for Children event is coming up on September 16th. At this event Blue Sky Bridge honors its partners in the fight against child abuse. We want your nominations for who should be recognized this year for their outstanding commitment to children and Blue Sky Bridge.

Community Outreach Award

This award will be given to the person who has gone above and beyond to spread the word about child abuse prevention in Boulder County and the work BSB is doing in the fight against child abuse.

Leadership Award

This award recognizes someone who is a leader in the field, who mentors, and inspires people throughout their work.

Advocacy Award

This award recognizes someone who, through their work within the community has dedicated their time to improving, expanding and/or advocating for children and their families.

Champion for Children

This award goes to an extraordinary group or individual who has exceeded expectations on behalf of children experiencing maltreatment. This award may be awarded to those who have conducted an investigation of child abuse, provided support to a family, educated our community, or performed outstanding work that represents Blue Sky Bridge and its mission.

Do you know anyone who has supported Blue Sky Bridge over the last year that should receive one of these awards? Send your nominations with a name and a description of why that person is being nominated to ltani@blueskybridge.org.

Nominations are due August 16th.
