Articulation/Phonology, Apraxia, Birth-3 population, Fluency, PROMPT technique trained

What is your favorite thing about your job?

Helping to improve the communication skills of my clients and their families. Also, I love working with children on a daily basis and hearing all of the cute and funny things they have to say!

What is one thing you wish people knew about your profession?

One common misconception is that speech-language pathologists are known as "speech teachers" and only work in schools. We work with a variety of populations in a variety of settings (clinics, hospitals, nursing homes, universities, etc.).

One fun fact about yourself:

I went zip lining over the rainforest in Costa Rica and I'm a J.CrewAholiC!
