

SPECIAL EDUCATION ADVOCACY TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

EMPOWERED!

strengthening expertise in special education advocacy

This hands-on training session will focus on:

- The key components of an IEP or 504 Plan and what they mean
- How to respond to and document comments made during meetings or conversations
- What timelines the school and county should be following
- How to know if an IEP or 504 Plan is being followed as written
- What to do if services or accommodations/modifications are not being provided
- What to do if you do not agree with the school or county's approach
- Small group discussions about current IEPs or 504 Plans
(please bring a copy of the most current plan and any other pertinent supporting documents)

When: Thursday, November 20
10:00 am* - 3:30 pm
(*registration will begin at 9:30 am)

Where: WV Division of Rehab Services Conference Room
4701 MacCorkle Ave., SE
Charleston, WV 25304

Trainer: Christina Smith, Executive Director
The Arc of West Virginia

There is no charge for this workshop and lunch will be provided.
Register by no later than November 16th via one of the following two methods:
Online at www.thearcwv.org / Phone to (304) 422-3151

Who should attend?

Anyone interested in learning about West Virginia and United States Special Education Laws and Policies to further advocate for safe, effective, and appropriate strategies and environments for children and young adults in school.

This program is made possible through funding from the Ross Family Foundation and Parkersburg Area Community Foundation