

Upcoming CUNY HR Events

CUNY Diversity Reception April 24, 2014 Borough of Manhattan Community College

OHRM's Office of Recruitment and Diversity hosts this biennial event, which celebrates diversity and inclusion across the University. This year's honoree is Professor Arlene Torres, Director of the CUNY Latino Faculty Initiative, which exemplifies the University's unwavering commitment to the recruitment and retention of a diverse faculty. Professor Torres' outstanding leadership has contributed immeasurably to CUNY's broad efforts to cultivate a new generation of scholars.

CUNY HR Conference: The Future of HR in Higher Education: Challenges and Opportunities June 18, 2014 John Jay College of Criminal Justice

OHRM will sponsor a human resources conference for the CUNY HR community. The keynote speaker will be Dr. William J. Rothwell, SPHR, President of Rothwell & Associates, Inc., a full-service HR consulting company, and Professor of Workforce Education and Development at Pennsylvania State University. A renowned specialist in workforce and organizational development, talent management, and global human resources, Dr. Rothwell will speak about recent trends in higher education such as the rise in online instruction, and how administrators and HR practitioners can cope with the challenges of evolving technologies, managing a multi-generational workforce, and loss of institutional knowledge as older workers begin retiring. Dr. Rothwell will also lead a break-out session on employee engagement as part of a robust talent management strategy.

Other topics and presenters include:

"Strategies for Working Skillfully with Difficult Faculty"
Susan Christy, Ph.D.

"Decisions by Metrics"
James Stellar, Ph.D., Queens College

"Effective Strategies for Recruiting a Diverse Faculty"
Marybeth Gasman, Ph.D., University of Pennsylvania

"The Affordable Healthcare Act: What it Means for CUNY"
Richard Ward, TIAA-CREF and Jerry Hanrahan, Boutfell Fay, LLP

"New York State Legislative and Legal Updates: The Impact on CUNY HR"
Katherine Raymond, J.D., The City University Of New York and Howard Greene, TIAA-CREF

Finally, a panel of CUNY Presidents will share their thoughts in a session entitled, "What Keeps Us Up at Night and How HR Can Help."
