

Faith in Our Music

Many Voices, Diverse Chords, Common Hopes

September 23-25, 2014

Richmond campus

A three-day music conference for clergy, church members, worship committees, church musicians, and anyone interested in church music which will introduce new music and music styles.

featuring

Amanda Powell

Musician and educator in global music

John Bell

Hymn writer from the Iona Community of Scotland

Warren Cooper

Jazz Worship arranger, composer and performer

as well as Beverly S. Bailey, Suzanne Riehl, Carol Schweitzer, and Charles Summers

Workshops include

Praise the Lord with the Sound of . . . Children: Music with Children of All Ages

Helping God's People to Find Their Voice

Groove, Sway, Swing . . . and the "Worship Music" Thing

Music with the World

The Art of Accompanying: Music as a Resource for Pastoral Care

Ebony and Ivory: Keys to Harmony between Pastor and Minister of Music

Registration: $195 ($150 early registration by July 31st) for the first two registrants from one church; $125 for each subsequent registrant. Cost includes dinner on Tuesday and Wednesday, lunch on Wednesday, and breakfast on Thursday.

For more information or to register, visit our website www.upsem.edu/music_conference