

Text to ponder: Nehemiah 1-2; Ps. 1

Father, I think of you and am consumed with awe concerning your mercy.
What a marvelous thing!

Father, this week, I understand The Apostle Paul's frustrations with an inconsistent life.

Father, How can I praise you? And for what?

God's Faithfulness to our offerings

The ability and opportunity to finish the pavilion and see a new roof on the parsonage

Adam Johnson is enjoying his new job

Carol Oliver enjoyed the chance to spend time with sisters

What else can you think of...

Father: I have needs in my life, great questions, great burdens
(List them)

Father: Our church needs you and its needs are many:

- The finances to expand our ministry
- The Fall Halloween outreach
- Church growth
- The leadership as we plan for the coming year
- Needed improvements to the property: The roof and Pavilion
- Jill Pensinger and great nephew Cole. Jill is a new grandma.
- Glenn Wokeck
- Our Awana commanders and leaders
- Sandy Copenhaver
- Employment for Janet H
- Delores Carrier
- Unspoken requests
- Other:

Father, Thank you for hearing my prayer

My goal for this week is:_____