

Detail of the Museum's Children's Tile Wall—US Holocaust Memorial Museum

PANEL DISCUSSION: “Remembering the Holocaust in Literature, Film, and Theology”

February 6, 7-9 p.m.
Bethel University Benson Great Hall

This panel discussion will touch on the role of memory in constructing identity and the ethical challenge that the Holocaust presents to the modern world and the Christian and Jewish communities. The evening will be primarily conversational, with audience participation through Q&A.

The panel will feature:

- Alejandro Baer, Associate Professor & Director, Center for Holocaust & Genocide Studies, University of Minnesota
- Victoria Barnett, Director of the Program on Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum
- Steve Carr, Professor of Communication at Indiana University - Purdue University Fort Wayne, specializing in Holocaust Film Studies
- Robert Ehrenreich, Director of the Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies at the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum
- Petra Schweitzer, Professor at Shenandoah University specializing in women in the Holocaust

This discussion is open to the public, and registration is not necessary.

This program has been made possible by the Programs on Ethics, Religion, and the Holocaust, Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies, United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, with the support of the Hoffberger Foundation.

Complete info about this and related events can be found at bethel.edu/events/transfer-memory

BETHEL
UNIVERSITY