

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®
HAWK MOUNTAIN COUNCIL

2015 Eagle Camp

Because you are an Eagle Scout, members of Hawk Mountain Council recognize that you have developed personal skills that are exceptional. We want you to have an opportunity to use those skills, go where very few others have had the chance, and experience nature as few others do. Those skills are your ticket to EAGLE CAMP - 2015. Eagle Camp is "an exceptional lifetime experience" where you paddle Maine's Allagash Wilderness Waterway.

We are looking for adults over the age of 21 to be guides for this great event as well as youth participants who are looking for a high-adventure experience that is life-changing. Pre-course for the trip will take place on the Delaware River, beginning Friday, June 5, 2015 and ending Sunday June 7, 2015. Eagle Camp will then begin with an over-nighter at Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation, Friday, June 19, 2015 and depart Saturday, June 20, 2015 for Maine. The target return date is July 3, 2015.

The trip consists of paddling the Allagash Wilderness Waterway from Northern Maine to the Canadian Border on streams, lakes, and easy rapids while observing wild life and enjoying excellent fishing. You will also have the opportunity to explore the fire tower, the ice cave, and the phantom train (Recommend Google Search of Allagash Wilderness Water Way.) The cost of the trip is $750.

If you are interested in EAGLE CAMP - 2015, either guiding (21 and over) or as a youth participant, please contact Slate Altenburg at slayton@ptd.net, 570.386.4631 or David Muldowney at david.muldowney@scouting.org, 570.754.7552.
