2014 Youth of the Year

Navjot Hansra

Navjot Hansra was presented the Youth of the Year honor as a young person who dedicates many hours outside her studies to improve the City of American Canyon. Ms. Hansra was nominated by American Canyon High School Vice Principal, Brad Shurmantine. Ms. Hansra has a long list of accolades, a short summary follows: She is a straight A student at American Canyon High School, tutors students in math, editor of the Wolf Print Student Newspaper, President of the American Canyon Red Cross Club ensuring the school is prepared for a disaster, President of the Hands-in-Motion Club knitting items for patients in several hospitals and service clubs, Honorary (Youth) Commissioner for the City's Parks and Community Services Commission, and she has received High Honors from John Hopkins University Center for talented youth, International Mathematics and Verbal Talent Search. Ms. Hansra hopes to be in the medical field, possibly a traveling nurse or doctor. Ms. Hansra embodies all that we hope for in our American Canyon youth.
