

Prayer for Clarity

*Lord,
May your words be like a lamp that lights my way.
May your love be like a compass that gives me direction.
May your truth be like a signpost bringing clarity.
May your peace be like a measure that guides my decisions.
May your hope be like a flag that declares I walk with you.
May your words be in my mind,
Your love guide my feet,
Your truth be a sign,
Your peace be a measure,
And your hope be a flag,
As I walk close to you at this time.*

Amen.

It's a great time to be at Grace. Can you feel it? I've had numerous people come up to me and tell me that they can feel the breath of fresh air as soon as they walk through the door on Sunday morning. With homecoming around the corner, if you haven't been in a while, I'd encourage you to join us on September 14th and feel for yourself what I'm saying. There are incredible things happening in your parish, with beautiful revelations on the horizon.

Of course, with this life giving buzz on the surface, we have our underlying work to do. We have commission chairs that are vacant; we have blanks to be filled on the coffee hour sign-up sheets, and faithful parishioners who are going it alone right now in various areas to keep the spirit of Grace alive in all its many facets.

So, it's time to come home. Let God guide your feet; let truth be your sign; let peace be your measure; hope be your flag; and walk close to God on your way back to Grace.
