

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

INFORMATION SHEET

HOW THE BEATLES CHANGED THE WORLD

By Martin Sandler

On March 1 , 2014, the Cape Organization for Rights of the Disabled (CORD), in collaboration with Books By The Sea, Osterville, will host a fund raising event around the Cape Cod launch of the new book: How The Beatles Changed The World written by the internationally acclaimed author Martin Sandler. Sandler has written over 95 books, won five Emmy awards and has been nominated for two Pulitzer prizes.

This fund raising event will be held at the Riverway Lobster House Restaurant, Rte 28, South Yarmouth, MA . Beatles music will be performed by the Nowhere Men. Mr. Sandler will be interviewed by Melanie Lauwers, Book, Health, Travel and Home Editor for the Cape Cod Times. Lauwers will delve into all aspects of Sandler's fascinating research. Sandler will then present his unique and often humorous take on what he learned about the Beatles. He will than sign copies of his collectable book.

At the event there will be food, a silent auction, 50/50 raffle, prizes and a table, staffed by CORD, containing information on CORD services and examples of low tech assistive technology devices.

CORD is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that does not charge a fee for its services of disability information and referral, independent living skills training ,peer support and advocacy. CORD has been working, since 1984, to advance the independence, productivity and integration of people with disabilities into mainstream society.

The event will include a sit down dinner with beverage coupon. Ticket price is $40. Doors open at 6:30 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased on line: www.cilcapecod.org ; or call CORD at (508) 775-8300 or 1-800-541-0282 (both #'s V/TTY); or at Books By The Sea, 874 Main Street, Osterville, MA (508)-420-9400; or at the door (call CORD to hold tickets). For reasonable accommodations and dietary restrictions call CORD by 2/21/14