

Rod Heasley is the executive vice president of sales and marketing for Peritus Portfolio Services (PPS). PPS is a Texas based finance company that specializes in the purchasing of auto secured bankruptcy notes as well as bulk accounts receivables. He is responsible for training, certification and immediate supervision of Peritus's 123 business development managers nationwide. He is the author of the "How to Build a Successful Territory"© for outside auto sales field agents. Rod has over 30 years in the automotive retail sales & ancillary products industry. Mr. Heasley is a contributing international writer, and has had numerous articles published nationally, as well as in Canada. Heasley is a highly sought out speaker and presenter for national auto industry conferences .He regularly conducts sales training seminars and motivational workshops for NIADA state dealer associations and is the author of the national NIADA Best Practices dealer training series titled: "Street Level"- Bankruptcy 101. Rod also serves as President/ Owner of an auto dealer sales consulting company named KISS CONCEPTS. His book entitled "Back to Basics-Relationships not Transactions" (a hands on guide to operating a successful independent auto dealership), is expected to be published in the fourth quarter of 2014.