

Parvin State Park Appreciation Committee, Inc.

For Immediate Press Release

Pittsgrove, New Jersey:

The Parvin State Park Appreciation Committee to host “Craft Fair and Farmer’s Market”

Get your reservation in early to participate in the Parvin State Park Appreciation Committee Craft Fair and Farmer’s Market on Saturday, August 16, Rain date Saturday, August 23, at Community House Point on Almond Road at Parvin State Park! All parking is located at the Main Entrance, 701 Almond Road.

This event will benefit the Parvin State Park Appreciation Committee to fund additional projects and programs at Parvin State Park.

Set up begins at 8am with start time of 9am. Closing at 4pm

We are looking to fill Park property at Community House Point on August 16th with as many participants as we can fit, each space will be either 10 x 15 (price is $15), or 20 x 20 (price is $20), where individuals may sell their crafts, be part of Farmer’s Market or a pre-approved food vendor. We would like food vendors to attend, as long as we have copies of their appropriate permits and certificates in our possession in advance. You supply your own table, tent and chairs, we will mark your space.

Please fill out the Participant form, send payment and any necessary certifications to: (Go to www.parvinstatepark.org to print out form)

Parvin State Park Appreciation Committee, 789 Parvin Mill Road, Pittsgrove, NJ 08318 no later than Thursday, August 14, 2014!

Don’t miss out on your chance to be part of this promising, exciting event!!

Please direct all questions to our email: parvinvolunteers@gmail.com or phone 856-981-6101.

Gather your friends and neighbors to either participate in this exciting vendor event or come enjoy the day along the water of Community Point and plan to help make this a successful event to allow the “gem” of Pittsgrove to continue to be the great place we all enjoy throughout the year!

Look forward to seeing you August 16th!