Mass Bay Credit Union Announces Children's Book Drive Through the Month of April

South Boston, MA – April 1, 2014 – It's Children's Book Month, and Mass Bay is collecting books for the Credit Union Community Hope Initiative to bring the joy of reading to underprivileged children in our community and region.

During the Month of April, Mass Bay is urging the community to please help by dropping off new and gently used children's books at any branch. Now more than ever, support is needed to help children gain access to books. Donations will go a long way toward opening a whole new world for a disadvantaged child.
